NOTHING BUNDT CAKES BIRTHDAY BASH TO BENEFIT CHILDREN IN GRIEF
Business generously offers to donate percentage of day's sales to The Mark Wandall Foundation

Sarasota, Florida: Nothing Bundt Cakes, located at 5354 Fruitville Road, has selected The Mark Wandall Foundation to receive a donation of 20% of the location's sales on July 21.

The contribution is part of Nothing Bundt Cakes' celebration of the store's first birthday.

Kelly Erdmann, the store's owner, has provided Bundtinis and Bundtlets for several foundation events in the past year.

"We are so grateful to Kelly for her amazing support of the foundation," said Melissa Wandall, director of The Mark Wandall Foundation. "We are appreciative of the partnership between Nothing Bundt Cakes and The Mark Wandall Foundation and look forward to continued success together in the future. Donations like this go directly to help further the foundation's efforts to support children and teens in grief."

The birthday celebration will begin at 9 a.m. The first 50 guests (age 13 or older) to make a purchase will receive free Bundtlets for a year* (one Bundtlet per month for 12 months). Nothing Bundt Cakes will also be offering cake samples, refreshments and raffle prizes.

From 9 a.m. to noon, iHeart Radio's 107.9 WSRZ will be providing music, prizes and giveaways.

About the organization: The Mark Wandall Foundation is a non-profit, 501(c)(3) organization supporting children and teens who are in grief due to the loss of an immediate family member or guardian. Our establishment facilitates programs that connect these children and their families to the valuable resources they urgently need. Our goal is to assist our children as they unearth their inner courage to confront the personal adversities they are facing and empower them to not only survive in life but to thrive in life.
